

AltProteins 23 – Code of Conduct

All Guests are asked to read and agree to the following Code of Conduct prior to attending the event.

Food Frontier (the conference organising body) requires all attendees, speakers, sponsors and industry partners at AltProteins 23 to agree with the following code of conduct.

AltProteins 23 will enforce this code throughout the event. We expect cooperation from all participants to help ensure a safe environment for everybody.

AltProteins 23 is committed to providing a harassment-free environment for everyone, regardless of gender, expression, age, disability, physical appearance, race, ethnicity, or religion. We do not tolerate sexual harassment, discrimination or any other inappropriate or unacceptable conduct by attendees in any form.

Unacceptable conduct includes offensive verbal comments (including related to gender, expression, age, disability, physical appearance, race, ethnicity, or religion), deliberate threats or oppression, stalking, unwanted photography or recording, disruption of live sessions, misrepresentation of personal identity or affiliations, inappropriate physical contact, and unwelcome sexual attention or conduct.

If a participant engages in unacceptable conduct, AltProteins 23 will take any action they deem appropriate, which may include warning the offender, contacting the authorities or imposing a ban on the offender from current and future events.

If you are being subjected to any unacceptable conduct or witness such conduct towards someone else, or have any concerns, please contact a member of Food Frontier, the event organisers or the venue staff.

AltProteins 23 is committed to ensuring that no person feels unsafe during any event. We value your attendance.

We expect all invited guests, media, participants, sponsors and industry partners of the event to follow these rules at the events themselves and at any related social events.
